Ahsan Miraj is Head of Audit and Assurance at Bright Grahame Murray and is responsible for the firm's compliance and regulatory matters.

Ahsan acts for a wide range of clients including high-net-worth individuals, with particular specialism in real estate, oil and gas, commodities, professional practices, AIM, manufacturing and organisations involved in financial services and the charity sector.

Specialising in audit, Ahsan enjoys focusing on owner managed businesses, getting to know his clients' objectives and helping achieve them. Whether this is providing strategic input, corporate structuring and general commercial advice, tax planning, raising finance or adding value through the audits of small larger private and international companies, Ahsan enjoys providing a high level of service and going the extra mile for his clients.

Other expertise includes acquisition and sale of clients' business, including due diligence, tax structuring of the transaction and working with other professionals. He also assists overseas entrepreneurs looking to trade on an international basis using UK entities and regularly advises them on general, financial, strategic and tax issues.

Ahsan is a keen traveller, in his spare time he enjoys watching cricket, going to the gym, spending time with family and supporting his team Manchester United.
