Matthew Eade is an Audit Partner at Bright Grahame Murray.

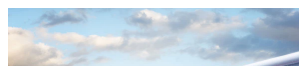

Matthew looks after a significant portfolio of clients across a range of business sectors including real estate, professional practices, aviation, oil and gas, commodities, media and entertainment, academies and the not for profit sector.

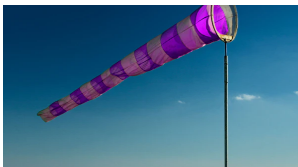

As part of the overall service Matthew provides to his clients, in particular, but not exclusively to owner managed businesses, he provides advise on a breadth of subjects including corporate and personal taxation, management information and other corporate issues.

Matthew trained and qualified as a Chartered Accountant with Bright Grahame Murray. During this time Matthew has enjoyed promoting excellent client relations and looks forward to building on this.

Away from work, Matthew enjoys spending time with his young family and has a keen interest in most sports including golf, cricket, rugby and his favourite team, Liverpool Football Club.
